The Oil Factor	SoapQueen presents Macadamia oil. We offer many different grades of Macadamia Oil, so have a scan & take your pick. This particular grade is the base of many cosmetic formulations, you simply cannot go wrong with this oil no matter the finished product or formulation. It is very stable & has an extensive shelf life, is versatile, easy to use & incredibly cost effective. It is a true warrior of our oil range. This oil is perfectly suited for hair care products, any nut oils are great bases for the hair. The high oil content Macadamia nut (approx. 70%) is full of monounsaturated fatty acids, in particular it is full of palmitoleic acid which serves as a super healer of the skin. Very nourishing indeed.
Functionality	An excellent emollient. A good oil for hair care products & sun care products. Aids in relieving skin & scalp irritation, both inflammation & itching. A popular lubricating oil, commonly used in massage for this very reason. Very stable & a decent shelf life. A very good carrier to blend with other oils, mainly essential oils. Due to its refined state the profile of the oil does not impact the aroma of the essential oil. It is a cost effective carrier oil, so you can buy lots of it!
