The Oil Factor	SoapQueen presents Sesame seed oil - refined. This ancient raw material has been utilised for centuries & for good reason, it's full of all the goodies that are great for the skin & hair. First of all, the seeds carry plenty of zinc, which is an essential mineral that boosts production of collagen which delivers more elasticity to the skin & aids in the repairing of skin cells. It also carries a wealth of vitamin D & B, & most of all the natural antioxidant, vitamin E. Its versatility in skin care is apparent, commonly used in formulations from sun-care products (due to the vitamin E content), through to massage blends due to its ability to remove environmental toxins from your body, leaving your skin detoxified post massage. Its popularity in massage is also due to its functionality when it comes to increasing blood circulation & improving elasticity of your skin.
Functionality	A Highly Moisturizing & absorbing, natural emollient which is known to restore elasticity in the skin. Powerful Anti-oxidant Properties. Rich in Essential Fatty Acids, vitamins D, B & E. A detox oil, popular in massage blends. The raw material is rich in zinc which boosts collagen production within the skin.
