The Oil Factor	What's up doc! SoapQueen presents Carrot Seed Oil - cold pressed. This is totally unique to the market. Harvested from wild carrot seeds, it is a classic, highly nutritious oil. We are delighted to offer you this Omega enriched oil. We collect the seeds (a lot of them!) and then press away. This completely natural cold pressing method delivers a stunningly fresh, earthy aromatic oil. As for the inherent benefits, just like our wide range of natural fruit seed oils, it's full of antioxidants & essential fatty acids. Widely used in skin care for this very reason & of course there's the marketing benefits of a 100% naturally produced oil, utilising a raw material that would otherwise be disposed of. Unique, different, versatile, functional... Exactly what we strive for here at SoapQueen.
Functionality	A good emollient and absorbs beautifully into ones skin. A light marzipan/almond aroma. Promotes cell regeneration which delivers you silky smooth, new skin. A fantastic ingredient for your shampoo, due to its ability to give shine and strength to the hair molecules. A classic skin nutrient & protector bursting with antioxidants. The production story of this oil alone is a good reason to involve it in your formulations - Zero waste production.
